

The proposed rules change to allow LPFM to take priority over translator service is of concern to me. My family currently listens to Christian programming offered in our area through translators. These stations offer positive, family friendly programming to our community which is an alternative to standard programming. It would be a disservice to our community to lose this family friendly programming by silencing the positive messages that could help create a better community. Please consider these factors as you proceed with this process.